Notice on the finals of the 1st International Youth Literature and Art Series Competition

1.Introduction

In order to promote the development of international youth literature and art, the first "International Youth Literature and Art Series" is jointly organized by the International (Macau) Institute of Academic Research, Organizing Committee of International Youth Literature and Art Series Competition, Macau Music Education Association, International Art Accreditation Committee, Chinese Calligraphy and Painting Research Institute. In order to enrich the learning and life of students at all levels, the competition is aimed at primary and secondary school students all over the world, hoping to discover and cultivate more new literary talents from high-level competitions; at the same time, the competition also provides the majority of literature and art lovers to show their talents and exchange learning. The platform will attract outstanding young people from all over the world as members in order to better promote academic research activities in literature and art.

Since the start of the competition in February this year, more than 900 students at all levels from mainland China, Hong Kong, Macau, Taiwan regions, Malaysia, Singapore, Japan, South Korea, Germany, the United Kingdom and other countries and regions have actively signed up for the 45 subdivisions, and more than 2,500 copies have been received. Works including composition, music, calligraphy, painting, photography, dance, speech and other categories. After a month-long judging, the awards for each group were selected.

During the review process of the preliminary competition, it was found that most of the content of the works revolved around many major events in the world in recent years, focusing on discussing affairs and politics, social and people's livelihood, national conditions and family relationships, and the courage to reflect and cherish the present, with a certain depth, strength and appeal, which fully reflects the feelings of family and country and humanistic feelings of contemporary young people, we look forward to the contestants' better performance in the finals and their future life, and make contributions to the society and the country. Here, teachers and students are welcome to actively participate in the finals!
